NELSON FAMILY GENEALOGY

.....Joseph Nelson appeared in Mobile, Alabama and on the eastern shore of Baldwin County, Alabama in 1818, apparently surveying and purchasing land for the proposed migration to southern Alabama to occur five years later. He returned to Carteret County, N.C. In 1823, Many residents of these outer islands migrated by wagon train to southern Alabama. Some of the families on this train were NELSON, BISHOP, FULFORD, WALLACE, STIRON (STYRON),and many others. Legend says that this wagon train was pulled by oxen, slow but strong and powerful where roads don't exist. Taking as many natural trails as possible, the wagon train inched its way toward southern Alabama. Some Nelson descendents state that their ancestors walked on this Wagon Train all the way from the starting place, probably Beaufort, North Carolina all the way to what is now Marengo County, Alabama.

It must be assumed that many of these hardy pioneers had to take turns walking beside the huge oxen to guide them. This may explain part of the reason for walking.

The wagon train arrived in Marengo County, Alabama about 60 days later, settling in an area near the town of Demopolis.

.....The land in Alabama in 1823 was still a wilderness and Indians still a problem. The land was rich and fertile. Timber and game were in abundance.

MIGRATION: AMERICAN TRAILS AND ROAD REFERENCE CARDS; 1750-1850; Beverly Whitaker, Kansas City Mo.,1995; ;Downloaded from: <http://members.aol.com/RoadTrails/roadtrai.html>; TEXT: THE UPPER ROAD The Upper Road branched off from the King's Highway at Fredericksburg, Virginia, and went southwest through Hillsboro, Salisbury, and Charlotte in North Carolina, then on to Spartanburg and Greenville in South Carolina. The road generally followed the old Occaneechee Path which went from Bermuda Hundred on the James River, and Old Fort Henry (now Petersburg) southwest to the Indian trading town of the Occaneechi which existed by 1675 on an island in the Roanoke River at about the location of today's Clarksville, Virginia, close to the present Virginia and North Carolina state line.

From that location the trading trail went both north and south. The Trading Path divided at the Trading Ford of the Yadkin River, one branch turning toward Charlotte, the other through Salisbury to Island Ford on the Catawba, to the north of present Lake Norman. DeSoto and his cavaliers were perhaps the first white men to use portions of the great Occaneechi Path (1540). Some of the people associated with Fort Henry were Col. Abraham Wood, Thomas Batts, Robert Fallam, James Needham, Gabriel Arthur, and John Lederer. From 1700-1750, active trading was carried on by white emigrants with Indian villages. After 1740, the proprietary governor of the Granville District began to issue grants to Quakers and others from the tidewater counties of North Carolina and Virginia, attracting them into the northern half of North Carolina. By 1750, the Upper Road became an important wagon route for southbound migrations into that portion of North Carolina. During the Revolutionary War, the road was used extensively for troop movements in the South--relating to the battles at Guilford Courthouse, King's Mountain, and Cowpens.

'THE MOST LONELY NEWS'

By Ellen Fulcher Cloud

The following letters were written 1826-1836, by Asa Bishop and his family in Alabama to Asa's daughter, Nancy Bishop Lupton and husband Allen Lupton at Cedar Island NC. The Bishop family married into the Nelson, Wallace, Lupton, Styron, Robinson, Whitehurst and Fulford families of Carteret County. Members of all these families were on a wagon train that left Carteret County for Alabama in 1823.

These letters were the only three rescued from a box of letters that was burned years ago. The information in these letters is very important to genealogists working with these families. One can only imagine what history the burned letters could have unfolded. These original letters are now in possession of Mrs. Almeta Taylor of Sea Level NC.

I have transcribed the letters as they were written, with misspellings, etc. There were no periods in the letters, but there are places where I felt I had to insert them to make sense of what was being said.

TO ALLEN AND NANCY LUPTON

LETTER NUMBER 1

Maringo County
November 9th, 1826

Dear children

I now set down to rite you the most lonely news of your mothers death. She was taken sick the 7th of August and died the 5th of September in her seventieth year of her age she has had her health for 4 or 5 years better than you ever known her to have it for that length of time and could have walked round to see all her children in one a day. Her fever was high and she talked some out of her head for 2 two weeks then her sickness took a turn her fever seemed light she lay like one in an easy sleep and never spoke but few words.

She never ate more than a mouth full in two weeks she drank a good deal of coddle coffee and w and sider weakened and sweetened.

The last word I heard her speak plain was The Lord give me patients. I told her she was the patientest creature I ever see. She never moved hand or foot for some time before she died without a struggle or groan. Her children was all round her all most the (letter creased here ~ unreadable) Friday morning a bout day Brake. Her coffen was made and she was carried to Mr. Fulfords that night on Saturday she was put in the ground. The second Sunday in October her funeral sermon was preached by Mr. Yarborough a Baptist preacher.

I am left alone after living together forty six years five months and five days not a white soul on the place except for my self but Lukay Robinson lives with me and she is a fine girl she pays the greatest attention to me. John and Mr. Fulford both ask me to live them but I had rather stay at home agreable to the coarse of nature. We have both lived to good old age it can not be long before I shall be laid a long side of your mother the 19th of next month I shall be seventy five years old I am as well as can be expected there is a horse in the yard and I go among the children almost every day

Your brother John and Easter has bin very sick this summer but are at this time some better all the rest of your relations is well Your letter was in the office when your mother died I got it 2 days after

We have a good crop of corn peas and potatoes and our cotton is very sorry and price very low and the people much in debt.

There is a great steer about religion in this place I believe (unreadable) has joined the Baptist church this fall Abby Fulford and her sister Lisa has been baptized Abisha Nelson , Daniel and (unreadable)

I don't have any thing more to write but desire you to write as often as you can I will continue to write as long as I am able but your brother John will write when I give out my head is weak and my eye sight Bad

may the Lord guide and direct you in the way that is most pleasing to him

From your affectionate father.

(Signed) ASA BISHOP

LETTER NUMBER 2

Meringo County
December 21 (no year)

Dear Brother and Sister,

I take this opportunity to inform you that I and my family is well at present and hope you are enjoying the same blessing and all my sisters and their Family well except brother (unreadable) this week but is some better all our neighbors is well at this time but it was very sickly hear last spring and summer and a lot of deaths but only two in our family Easter lost her little daughter Delila and Mister Fulford lost his black boy Peter there has been very good crops made here this year Mister Fulford made about thirty five thousand weight of cotton which he sold at fourteen cents per pound.

I would be glad you would come to this country if you could be satisfied for I want to see you all very much

I have six children Stephen, James, Joseph, Bishop, William and Abey two of brother Johns children living with dada and one with William Robinson and one with his mother. Lotty has another son by her last husband Easter has three children, Allen, Rebecca and Lidia Betsy has five and Sally nine

Dada is so old he can't hardly write is the reason he don't write to you no oftener but I want you to write me as often as you can and I will try to write you as well as I can Tell Old Uncle and Aunt Nan that Simon is well and has lived with us this year but is to be hired out the 29th of this month

Daniel has made between forty and fifty dollars this year by making (unreadable) and (unreadable) is very high

Give my love to all your children and all enquiring friends no more at present but still remain your loving sister.

(Signed) MARY FULFORD

LETTER NUMBER 3

March 20, 1836

Dear Sister

Miself and famaly are well and your sisters Polly, Elizabeth, Sally and their famalies are all well at this time our father is a little unwell at this time with a cold

Wallace Robinson and his family live over in the Chacktaw Purchase they were well when I heard from them our fathers eyes has failed him so that he can't rite to you which has caused me to try to rite to you

I want you to continue writing as long as you can for I don't expect you ever will move to this country. Provisions is very scarse this part of the country corn is a dollar and a helf a bushel pork is eight dollars a hundred cotton has been sold from fourteen to eighteen sents.

Brother Johns four sons are all fine hardy boys Asa lives with his grandaddy and I think will make a smart man if he lives Robert and Clifton live with their mother and William lives with his Aunt Abby Fulford

I have four children a living and have lost one my last child a boy about three months old named Denard.

Pollys last child is girl named Alecy she will soon be looking for another. Tell Bertamys mother that he and Stephen is well Lucresha has one daughter, Fame has got six children William four a living and has lost one

Asa and Miriam has not married yet Betsys Miniram is married to James Wallace son of William, Horatio Willis is married and got one son Asa Robinson is clerk of court at Lindon.

Our father lives a lonesome life he has no white person with him but little Asa.

Tell Allen and all the children that I want to see them very bad and I hope if I never see them in this world I hope that I shall meet them in the world to come whenc parting is no more.

I have nothing more but remain your loving sister until death.
